NOTES

1. This edition of the Army List is corrected generally to include promotions, appointments, etc., promulgated on or before 14 February 1970. It includes the amalgamation of the 10th Royal Hussars (Prince of Wales's Own) and 11th Hussars(Prince Albert's Own) to form the Royal Hussars and the formation of the Ulster Defence Regiment.

2. The figures in brackets after the titles of Infantry regiments denote the former regimental districts to which the regiments belonged.

3. The badges, devices, distinctions and mottoes borne on Standards, Guidons and Regimental Colours are shown after the title of regiments, the "centre" badge being printed in heavy type. In the case of Regiments and Corps which do not bear Standards, Guidons or Colours, the badges, etc., shown after their titles are the cap badge or shoulder belt badge.

4. The honorary distinctions and battle honours awarded to regiments in commemoration of their services, and to former regiments of the Royal Armoured Corps and the Infantry which have been amalgamated, are listed immediately following the Corps nominal rolls. Those printed in heavy type are borne on the Standards, Guidons or Colours of existing regiments, or in the case of regiments having no Standards, Guidons or Colours, on their Appointments.

5. The Great War and the Second World War battle honours shown in heavy type are borne on the Queen's Colour: the remaining battle honours shown in heavy type are borne on the Regimental Colour. Foot Guards bear all battle honours shown in heavy type on the Queen's and Regimental Colours.

6. The colour of uniform, etc., indicated is that of No. 1 dress except where otherwise stated.

7. Indian Army Associations. A list of addresses of secretaries or representatives of associations connected with the Indian Army (pre 1947) and Auxiliary Force (India) is maintained at the National Army Museum, the official Museum for the Indian Army. Correspondence should be addressed to :—
